The following are important excerpts from the By-laws and Rules of Fairport Harbor Yacht Club;

- I must attend at least (3) general membership meeting per year.
- I understand that as an associate member, I have no voting, docking, or ram privileges. As a Full Member my boat must meet the dimensional requirements.
- The club does not guarantee water depth at any dock. It is the members responsibility to determine if the water space is suitable prior to dock day bidding.
- I am obligated for forty (40) work party hours annually or pay a fine for every hour less than 40.
 - Twenty (20) hours must be put in to remain a member in good standing.
The following exceptions apply;
 - If excused by the Board of Directors
 - Prorated based on month of entry.
- Club House Clean-Up and Night Watch
 - Schedule appears on bulletin board, each member is usually scheduled 2 or 3 times per year.
 - Hours are from 7PM to 9PM;
 - You must sign the roster when work is completed;
 - Two (2) work party hours are credited per Night Watch.

I have read, understand, and pledge to comply with the By-laws and Rules of Fairport Harbor Yacht Club without reservation.
